BOMB WRECKS SHOP, THROWS EAST SIDE DWELLERS INTO PANIC

Explosion Follows Black Hand Demands on Barber for Money.

After paying no attention to repeated ed Black Hand letters demanding $1,800, received in the last six months, ph Corrintions found the front of his barber shop at No. 526 First avemue wrecked by a dynamite bomb this Windows in the front of Eugene Wolfberg's sign painting shop next oor were also shattered.

The building in which Corrintione's place of business is located is a tene-ment above the ground floor. Nine families live there and were terrorised by the explosion, which occurred shortly before daybreak. The police quieted the aroused people.

Detectives Ford and Gunther were assigned to the case, and Corrintione told them the threatening demands for money had reached him at frequent intervals during the last half year, but he said he had torn up the communications and paid no attention to them.

Policeman Lenehan said he had passed the barber shop a fe v minutes before the explosion, but that he had seen no one in the vicinity.
